MALE QUARTETTE AND READER Paris, Jan. 1.—(By The A. P.)—Varying degrees of bitterness are shown by all the afternoon newspapers today in their comment on the activities of the allied supreme council of an Anglo-French alliance, but at the same time hope that it will not be "too dearly bought."

The Temps relierates its previous criticism of the supreme council "usurping" the reparations commission's authority concerning the schedult of German reparations.

"We persist." says the newspaper. "in directing the attention of our British a large way. An unusually attractive concert is a large way. The program com lar, humerous and sacred numbers, and will be rendered in an artistle manner. The reader, Miss Hinton, spent months overseas, entertaining the soldiers and she will be remembered as the reader in the "Y" course about two years ago, when she simply captivated her audiences. This concert will please the most particplar, and doubtless a large audiones be present. The concert will be given at the Community House on Church street.
